

Students Awarded State & International Designations

University School film and TV production students received numerous awards and designations at the state and international levels. In addition to winning first place awards at the state-level competition, the Jim Harbin Festival, the following films were honored at the International Student Media Festival:

| Jim Harbin Festival Awards             | International Student Media Festival Designations    | Film  | Student Producer(s)   |
|--|--|---|---|
| First Place & Best of Show Grades 6-12 | Best of Festival                                     | "Haiti: Mission for Hope"   | Victoria Kohl ('12)   |
| First Place                            | Best of Festival:                                    | "Dear Past"   | Josh Masimore, Connor Pestrichelli, Blake   |
| First Place                            | Excellence in Media Production and Judges' Favorite: | "Every Harmony"   | Victoria Kohl ('12)Gillian Newman   |
| Second Place                           | On-Site Competition                                  | Josh Masimore, Connor Pestrichelli, Gabe Wolf, JJ John, and Gustavo Wolosker. |   |
| Third Place                            | Public Service Video:                                | "Save a Life"   | Nelson Rincon, Daniel Harris, Michael Enslein, Adam Sinkoe, and Cole Borrer-Ekus. |