Seniors Receive Impressive Early Decisions in First Wave

Many University School seniors have already received acceptance confirmations that will allow them to attend the colleges of their choice. The first batch of early decisions is depicted below.