

KIDS & SCHOOLS

SCHOOL SCENE

• UNIVERSITY SCHOOL

Spectacular showing at county science fair

Students of the University School in Davie earned nine wins out of 10 entries in the 2008 Broward County Science Fair. Six students received first place in their specific category and all were chosen as state finalists. First-place winners and topics: Samantha Greissman, 10th grade, Medicine and Health Effect of Ozone/Air Quality on Asthmatic/RAD Patients; Kyle Beckman, 10th grade, Microbiology A Comparison of the Effects of Metronidazole and Ionic Liquid Silver on Escherichia coli, a Bacterial Strain Found in Crohn's Disease; Caitlin Gonzalez, ninth grade, Medicine and Health Effects of Cinnamon on Candida albicans; Scott Blair, ninth grade, Engineering Designing a Hurricane Proof Fence; Zach Sturman, ninth grade, Engineering Using Solar Energy to Power a Tent for Camping; and Tyler Laurence, ninth grade, Environmental Sciences Abiotic and Biotic Differences Between Natural and Controlled Freshwater Lake Environments.